BREATHTAKING AND RARE WHITE BUFFALO SPOTTED IN COLORADO

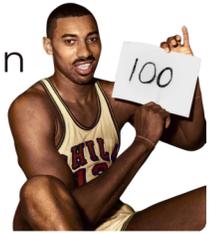

Spotting a white buffalo is rare, as these majestic beasts are declining in numbers. So photographer Stephen Johnson was totally shocked to spot three of these captivating creatures at a ranch near Hartsel, Colorado.

According to Stephen, the three white buffalo were with other buffalos gathered around the rancher feeding them. The fortunate opportunity to photograph the buffalo occurred while Johnson searched for an elk herd. For many people, white buffalos are spiritually significant animals. They are believed to be a symbol of hope and a sign that good things are on the way.

TODAY IN HISTORY

CHICK-FIL-A EMPLOYEE GIFTS CAR TO CO-WORKER

Haley Bridges is one incredible young woman. Her huge act of kindness toward her friend and co-worker, Hokule'a Taniguchi, exemplifies true love and friendship.

Haley was lucky enough to win a car in the Chick-Fil-A Christmas party raffle! The moment she won the car, she knew she wanted to gift the car to Hokule'a, who was commuting to work by bicycle in Wisconsin's cold winter months. Now, because of Haley's generosity, Hokule'a will be nice and warm on her way to work. HappyGram hopes this story of unbelievable generosity inspires you to perform a small act of kindness. Love definitely makes the world a better place!

NIKE'S "HANDS-FREE" SHOE HELPS PEOPLE WITH ARTHRITIS

Nike is a brand known for providing consumers with shoes that look good, feel good, and hopefully enhance performance. One of their newer shoes, the Flyease Go, is the world's first "hands-free" shoe. The shoe consists of two halves held together by a neoprene tension band, with a hinge in the middle of the sole.

The revolutionary design of the Flyease Go allows people to easily put the shoe on and take it off in a single swift motion. While this convenience may not be fully appreciated by most, it's a game-changer for many people who suffer from arthritis or individuals who are unable to use their hands. Thanks, Nike!

TODAY IN HISTORY

1801: Thomas Jefferson is the first President to be inaugurated in Washington, D.C.

1936: First flight of the airship Hindenburg in Germany

KIDS CLEAN SNOW OFF THE CARS OF STAFF AT WESTERLY HOSPITAL

After a very heavy snowstorm in the town of Westerly, two young boys, Abbey Meeker and Christian Stone, decided to do a good deed by helping the staff at Westerly Hospital. So the two thoughtful boys put on their winter gear and went to the parking lot to clear the heavy snow off of as many cars of hospital staff as they could.

Christian explained that he wanted to do something nice for nurses because of the heavy workload and stress. That reason fueled his resolve to work tirelessly in the freezing cold. Their kind gesture allowed staff to get home quicker to their families and they also felt appreciated for all their hard work! Way to go, Christian and Abbey - you guys are an inspiration!

USPS MAIL CARRIER SAVES ELDERLY WOMAN'S LIFE

Shonda Lemon is a USPS mail carrier based in Chicago. Her concern for an elderly lady on her mail route ended up saving the woman's life. Shonda has worked as a USPS mail carrier for eight years. During those years of service, she formed a strong bond with 89-year-old Helen Iwanski.

One day, Shonda realized that Helen hadn't picked up her mail for a couple of days which was unusual, so she decided to call the police to check on her friend. When the police arrived, they found Helen lying on the floor. She had fallen a few days earlier and was unable to get up. Thankfully, the ambulance arrived and took her to the hospital, where she could recover. Like Shonda, may we all pay close attention to the people in our lives.
